EVS

COMPLY WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW AND MINIMISE RISK POTENTIAL TO YOUR BUSINESS – INTELLIGENT TRANSLATION SOLUTIONS FROM EVS TRANSLATIONS

Compliance translations

Compliance with Codes of Conduct, IFRS guidelines, FCPA, or product safety regulations protects your company and its image in the long-term. Our specialised translators translate codes of conduct, executive compensation regulations, audit reports or due diligence documents into their native language identifying cultural specificities and localising them accurately. They are supported by our technical teams which provide solutions for digital media including e-learning for corporate-wide training.

Regardless of whether demand comes from a single compliance officer or an entire department for multiple languages, we are able to scale up processes and internal resources to meet your requirements.

EVS Translations is committed to investing in the development of its own in-house expertise with an undeterred vision for achieving high-level performance and quality in translation for its clients. Our in-house model allows for greater transparency, accountability and quality assurance. This is underpinned by ISO certified processes 17100:2018 and 9100: 2018 for Quality Management, tried and tested over the past 25 years to meet the specific needs of compliance departments.
