

A SPECIALIST APPROACH FOR QUALITY ON TIME, EVERYTIME

Legal translations

International law firms and corporate legal departments partner with EVS Translations because our global team meets the demand for quality, reliability and data security. For specialist high-volume areas, including disclosure, clients also know we manage data strategically so costs can be controlled. To deliver effective legal translations word-level accuracy is so important, but so is a provider who can maintain this at scale. Whether your firm requires 10 pages or 10,000 pages, EVS Translations offers quality at scale even on short timeframes.

Contract translations of all kinds, including those for M&A, legal and arbitration proceedings, as well as EU and competition law are part of our legal portfolio. As one of the few translation companies globally that hold an ISO 20771 certification for legal translations, you can be assured that our translations meet your requirements.

Our in-house translation team – one of the largest in the language services industry – allows for precision translation, which is further supported by state-of-the-art translation management tools for optimal efficiency.
